POLICY SUMMARY

This policy describes the assignment, use, and management of desk and cellular telephones and mobile computing devices by employees of SUNY Buffalo State.

POLICY

Policy Statement

Desk and cellular telephones and mobile devices are to be used for official business-related activities only. Personal use of telephones should be limited to emergency calls. Payment for reimbursement of personal desk or cellular telephone calls should be forwarded to the IFR and Recharge Accounting Office. Personal use of laptops and other mobile devices should be kept to a minimum.

Cellular Telephones and Broadband Service Plans

Cellular telephones and broadband service plans may be assigned only to employees whose duties and responsibilities require immediate or remote communications capabilities. The assignment of cellular telephones and broadband service plans must be approved by the appropriate vice president.

Applicability

This policy applies to all SUNY Buffalo State employees.

Responsibility

Employees assigned a mobile device

Each employee assigned a mobile device shall be primarily responsible for its security and maintenance, and must immediately report any theft, loss, damage, or vandalism of the unit. New York State law prohibits the use of handheld cellular phones while driving.

Vice Presidents

Vice Presidents will review assignments of cellular telephones and mobile computing devices annually to ensure compliance with this policy.
